Contemporary African Golf Villa

Upon entering this villa on the golf course, you are greeted by a spacious open plan living area with large windows and sliding doors, allowing for plenty of natural light. The living area leads outdoors to a manicured garden with an attractive terrace for al fresco meals, and a solar-heated swimming pool.

The furniture in the villa is comfortable and inviting, featuring natural fabrics in neutral tones such as beige, ivory, and taupe accented by fashionable green, touches of black and earthy reds. A mix of textures, such as Malawian cane, jute mats and patterned fabrics add depth and visual interest to the space, while touches of African art hint at your African holiday. In the dining area, a large wooden table with modern chairs provides a generous space for family meals or entertaining guests, while just off the modern...
